Disgraceful Row.

On Monday evening last about half Salt per barrel past 8 o'clock, a difficulty occurred on Pork per lb Main Street, between Ervin Linn and Tom Berry, the latter a colored individual .-The facts from what we can learn, are about as follows: Linn knocked Berry down with a billy or stang-shot, when Berry returned the compliment by letting out his bowels with a knife. The negro was arrested by the proper officers, and while on his way to the Jail, the 'roughs,' ever ready to resist, and never ready to obey the law, attempted to force him from the custody of the officers and execute him without "judge or jury" process, by happing, shooting or besting his brains.

Several shots were fired, but fortunately none of them took effect. We are creditably informed that one of the deputies, a verdant youth, with sparse and pale mustach on his lip so far forget himself as to fire two shots, not at the mob, but at the prisoner. Such folly as this is hardly to be tolerated in Lancaster. We think the young man much in need of a guardian. The whole affair is most disgraceful to supertine western. Lancaster. The knifing of Linn was bad and criminal enough, but the action of the mob was more criminal. Linn's wound is probably fatal. Berry is in Jail awaiting his trial.
